PRECAUTIONS

In addition to the UR22C Startup Guide Precautions, please read the following carefully before proceeding.

Please keep this manual in a safe place for future reference.

DANGER

Make sure to always observe the basic precautions listed below to prevent the likelihood of serious injury or even death from electrical shock, shortcircuiting, damage, fire or other hazards.

Handling caution

- Do not listen with the headphones while driving or cycling. Also avoid using them where hearing must not be impaired, like at a railroad crossing and a site of construction. Reduced ability to hear surrounding sound increases the risk of an accident.

WARNING

Always follow the basic precautions listed below to avoid the possibility of serious injury or even death from electrical shock, short-circuiting, damages, fire or other hazards. These precautions include, but are not limited to, the following:

Hearing loss

- Before connecting the headphones to a device or turning the power of all devices on or off, make sure that all volume levels are set to the minimum. Failing to do so may result in hearing loss, electric shock, or equipment damage.

CAUTION

Always follow the basic precautions listed below to avoid the possibility of physical injury to you or others, or damage to the device or other property. These precautions include, but are not limited to, the following:

Handling caution

- When removing the plug from the connected device, be sure to pull out by the plug itself, not the cable. Bending or pulling the cable forcefully may damage it.
- In case the headphones irritate your skin, stop use immediately. If any abnormality is appeared on your skin, consult a physician.

Keeping

- Keep the product out of reach of children to avoid them swallowing small parts. If a child swallowed them, consult a physician immediately.

Yamaha/Steinberg cannot be held responsible for damage caused by improper use or modifications to the device, or data that is lost or destroyed.

NOTICE

To avoid the possibility of malfunction/damage to the product, damage to data, or damage to other property, follow the notices below.

■ Handling and maintenance

- Refer also to the manuals supplied with the devices to be connected.
- Do not use headphones that are malfunctioning.
- Regarding the condenser microphone, make sure to store it with the desiccant included in the package and avoid places of high humidity.
